Clara GAYMARD, a graduate of the École Nationale d'Administration (ENA), held numerous positions within the senior civil service from 1982 to 2006: she was an administrative officer at the Paris Mayor's Office between 1982 and 1984 and then, after leaving the ENA, she joined the French Public Audit Office (Cour des Comptes) initially as an auditor and then as public auditor as of 1990. She then served as assistant to the head of the French Trade Office in Cairo (1991-1993) and later as head of the European Union office in the foreign economic relations department (DREE) of the Ministry of Economy and Finance. In 1995, she was named cabinet director for the Minister for Solidarity between Generations. She was then appointed Assistant Director of SME Support and Regional Action at the DREE (1996-1999) before being named head of the SME Mission (1999-2003). From 2003, she served as Goodwill Ambassador in charge of foreign investments and as President of the French Agency for International Investments. She joined General Electric (GE) in 2006, where she became President of GE France and then President of the Northwest Europe region from 2008 to 2010.

In 2009, she was named Vice-President of GE International in charge of the major public accounts, and then in 2010 Vice-President for Governments and Cities. She left GE at the end of 2015 to focus on Raise, a company she co-founded with Gonzague DE BLIGNIERES. Clara GAYMARD was also Chair of the Women's Forum For the Economy and Society from 2014 to 2018.
